

Hey,
Mina.

Hmm?

Mina Fernandez

Why are you so obsessed with these dog
worshipping
tribe people?

Oh,
well.

These
uncontacted
tribespeople
have lived without our civilization for centuries on their own.

They've survived all kinds of threats to their livelihood all this time, and all evidences point
to them being very self-efficient and prospering

They
are fascinati ng!

I really want to meet them
and talk to them!

And people who love dogs can't be bad.

The Drooling Tribute Kingmaker

The Drooling Tribute Kingmaker

The uncontacted people of the Mahbushar tribe AKA the dog worshipers are the elusive tribal people who worship canine gods, and treat all dogs as sacred animals. Due to the conservation law and the hostile and highly secretive nature of the tribal people that resulted in many violent encounters with outsiders in the past, no direct details of their daily lives had surfaced before. One dark rumored ancient practice of the mahbushar, is known as the drooling tribute.

The drooling tributes are what the Mahbushars call the human female servants of their canine gods. Not many evidences of the practice were ever found, but the rumor is that young tribeswomen become servants of the canine gods. This requires they themselves to become a female human canine. Living as dogs and worshipping them. Through various bodily modifications, restraints and extensive training, these young women are to live their lives as dedicated slaves to the Mahbushars gods and the sacred animals of the tribe and most of the tribesmen. The act of drooling of the drooling tribute signifies a need and lustful thirst for knowledge and prosperity. By keeping the tributes drooling, these living symbols bring in good fortune to all Mahbushar people.

A research team of 2 anthropologists and a local guide led by dr. Mina Fernandez allegedly found a way into the tribe. Following the local guide's claim of direct contact with the tribe.

Notes and journals of both researchers were found later. It detailed the tribespeople's way of life, how the group got into the tribe and accepted as part of the dog worshipers, wearing their clothes, eating their food and learning their ways...

To join the Mabushar's monkhood, Our most respected rank, one must swear his life to take care of the descendants of the gods, our sacred canines, and take a female as his cared tribute.

Sacrifices her to the gods and makes her live a life serving their sacred animals

Even our king would not be considered a true sovereign until he joins the monkhood

The White bitch

A white or albino tribute is considered a great omen and a sign of a great king who will bring prosperous reign, if he takes one in his care when he joins the monkhood.

In the past,
Many kings took albino bitches as their royal tributes. Many went into your land and take your white females and turn them
into their royal tributes

But none ever had a feral white female come to him by herself
before

So you see, Doctor... Your arrival here to us with your female is nothing short of a magnificent omen to our people.

W...

wait

The king will take your female as his royal tribute, and in exchange, you will take the king's daughter here as your wife.

You will represent your people and teach us about your world. You will be wealthy, respected, and well taken care of for the rest of your life. While your female will serve our gods, their sacred descendants, and our people as long as she lives.

Hh.. Urgh!!

This offer of fortunes and position is the act of kindness from our king. His majesty wants to make sure that there is peace among our 2 worlds. But do not mistaken, doctor. We will take the white bitch as our king's royal tribute. No matter what your answer is.

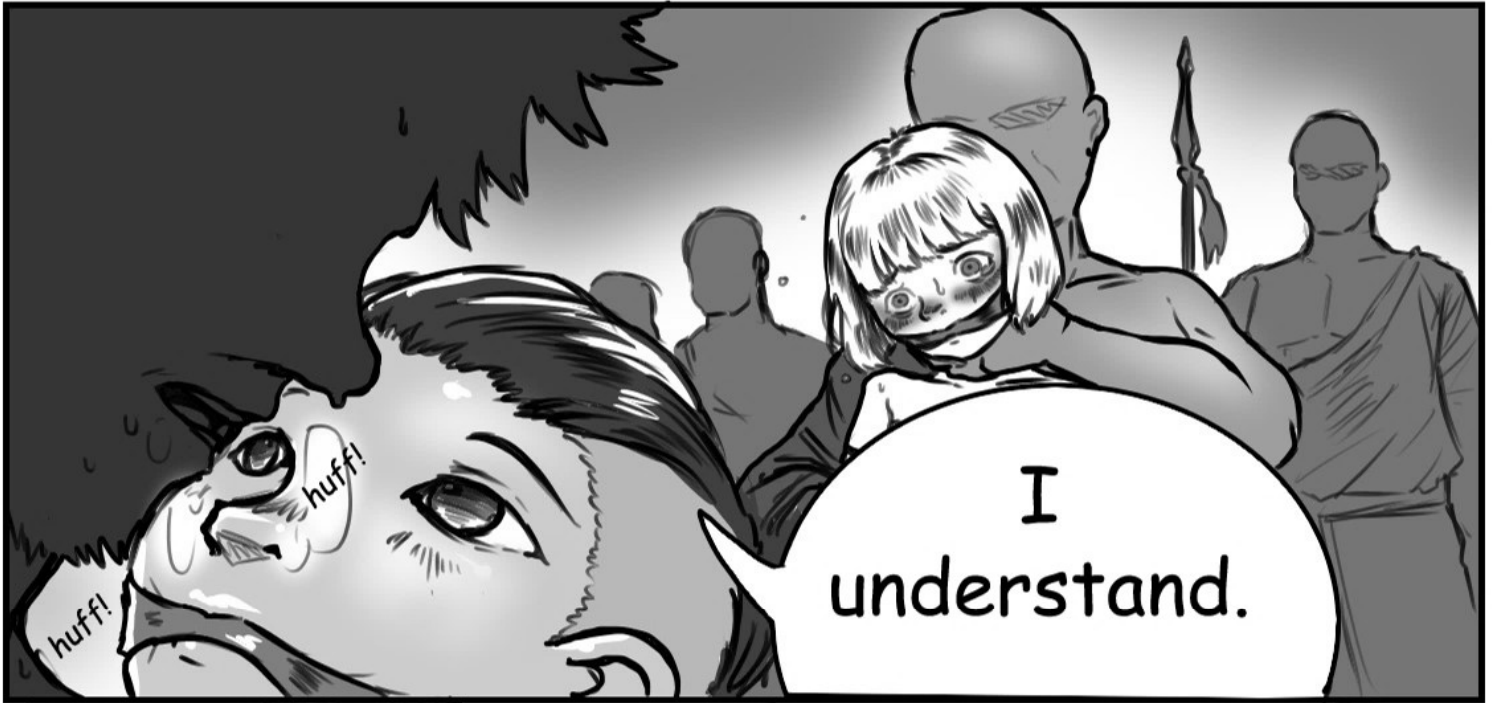

Sploot!

Fwip!

Fwip!

So choose. Give us your female as a symbol of our friendship, or die, here and now.

huff!
huff!

I understand.

Good

I'm sorry, Mina.

And that's how this came to be.

It's the best for both of our people.

HMM??
NNNN NN!!

Hnn!!
IIEEEEEE!!!

Slip!

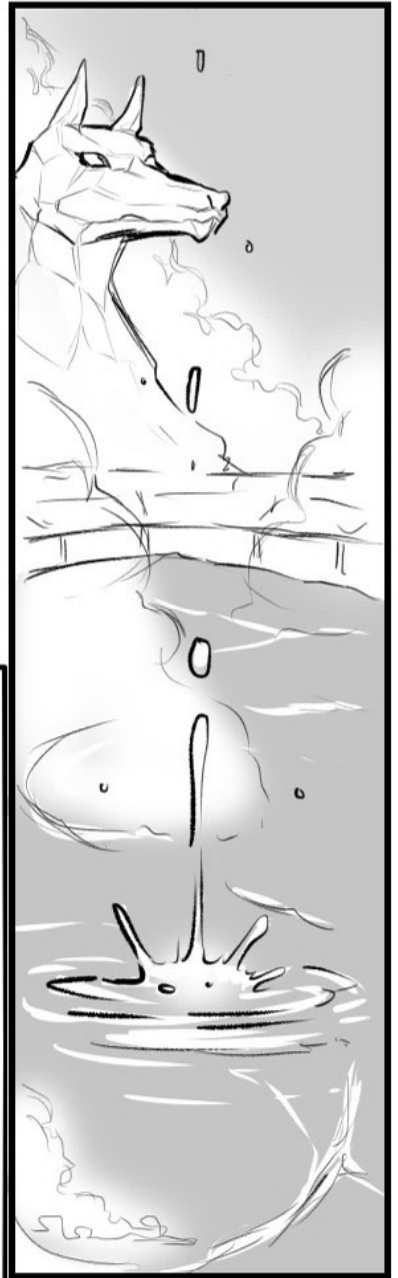

Mina was first harshly stripped of the tribal dress they gave her.

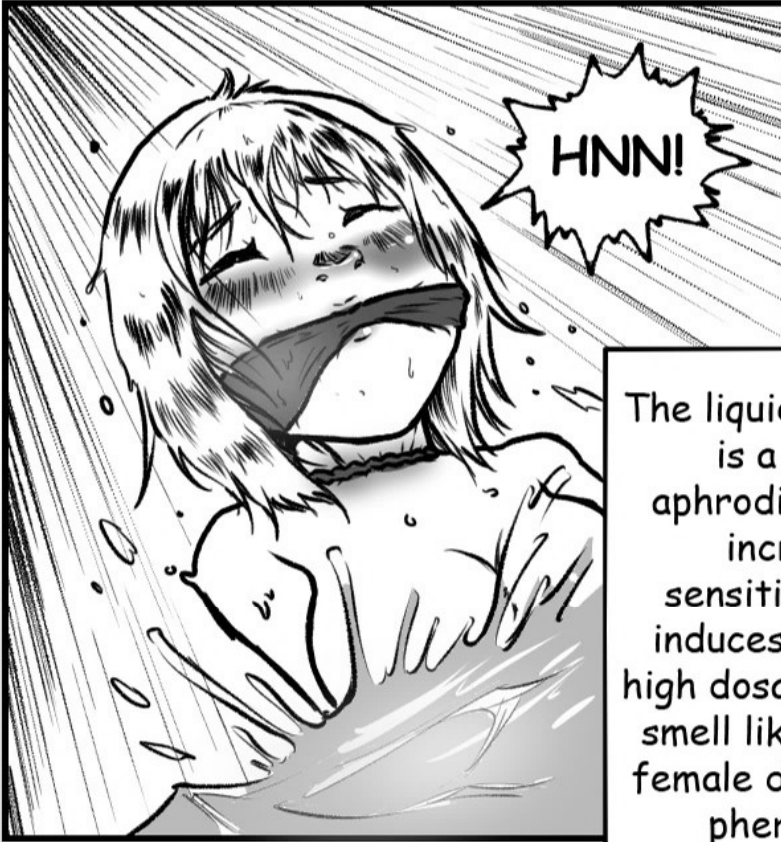

Then with it, they restrained her.

Yank!

Then, she was taken to be bathed in a pool of the tribe's ceremonial holy water.

HNN!

MNN!

The liquid in the pool is a strong aphrodisiac which increases sensitivities and induces vertigo in high dosage. It's also smell like that of a female dog in heat's pheromone.

WHH??
MNNN!!

What's going on??
It feels strange...

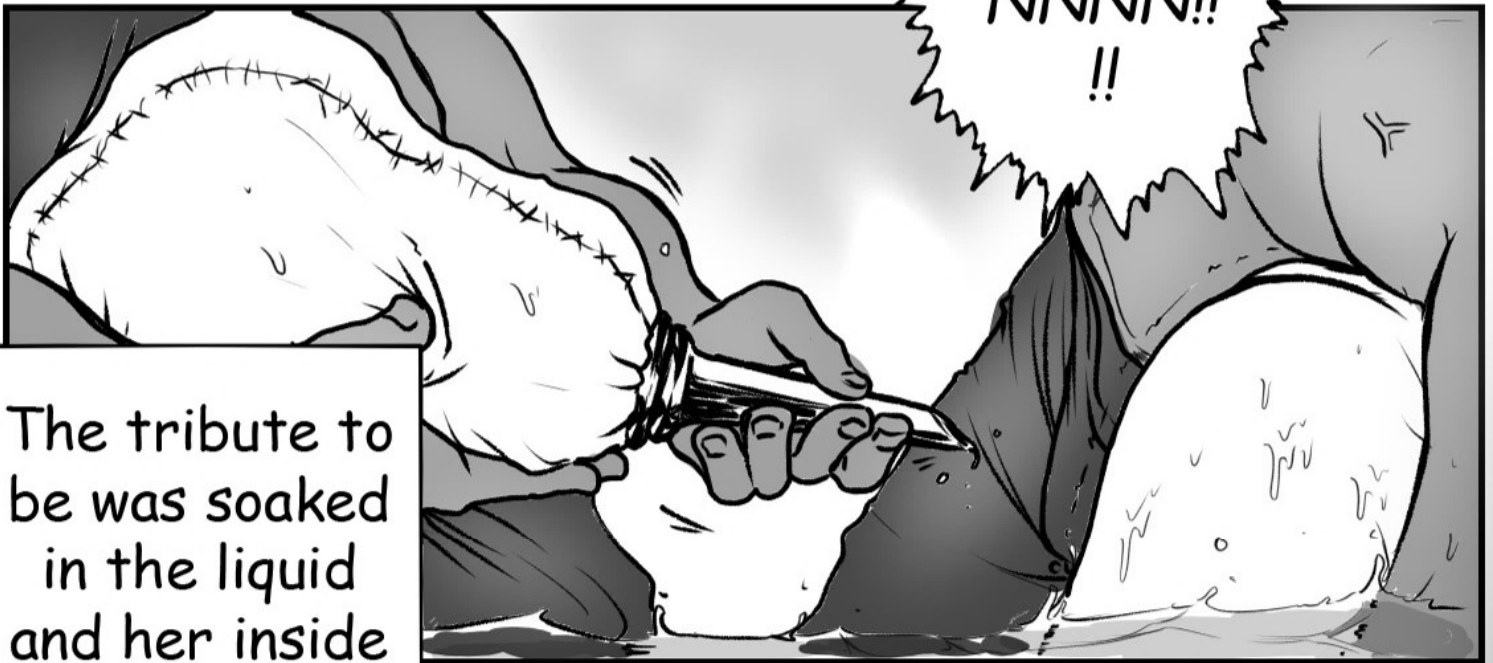

Huff!

Huff!

Suuurp!

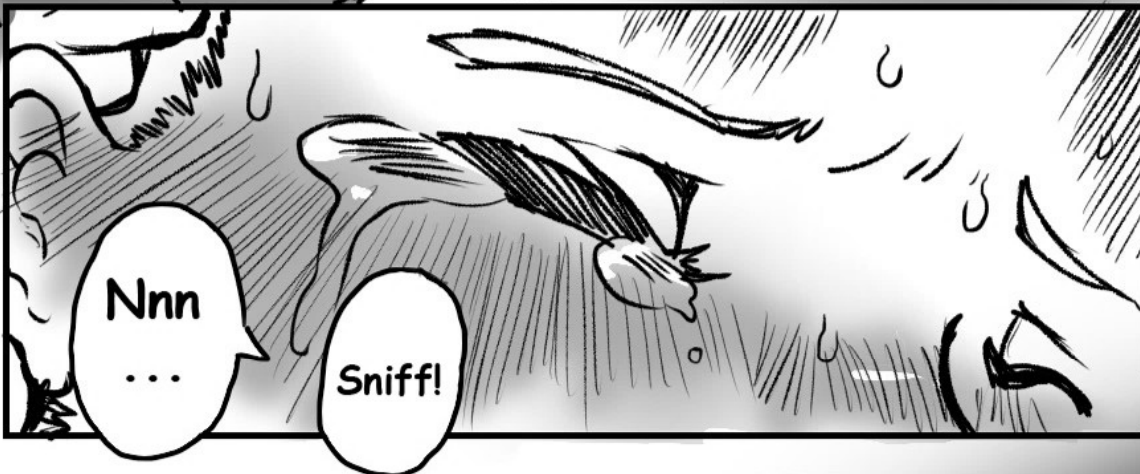

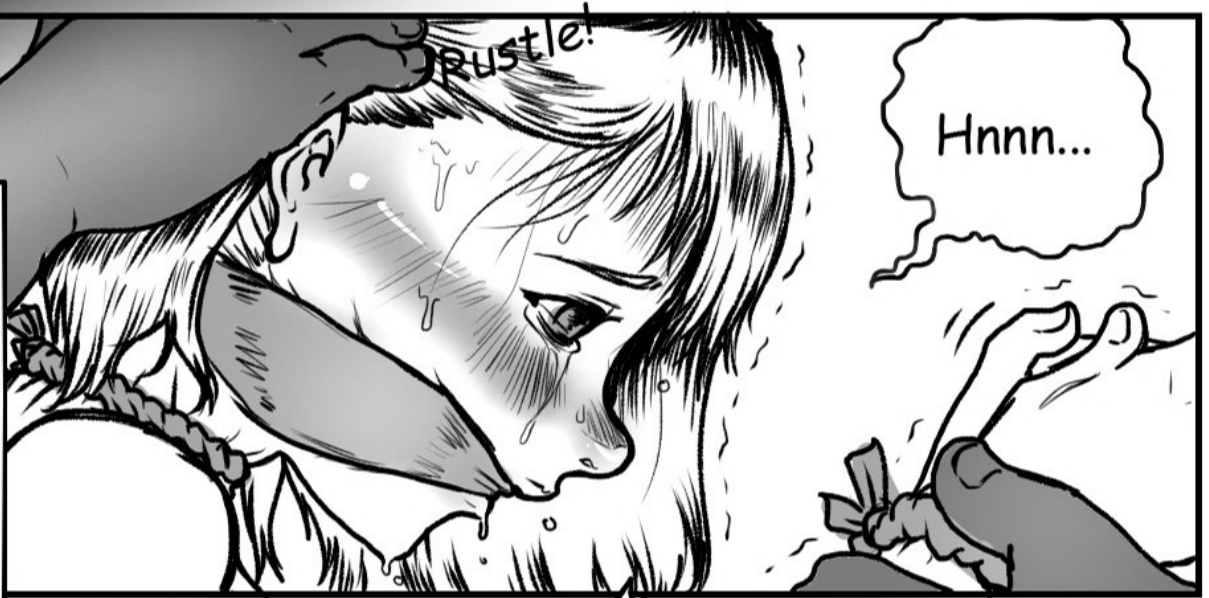

PLSSS!
NNNN!!
!!

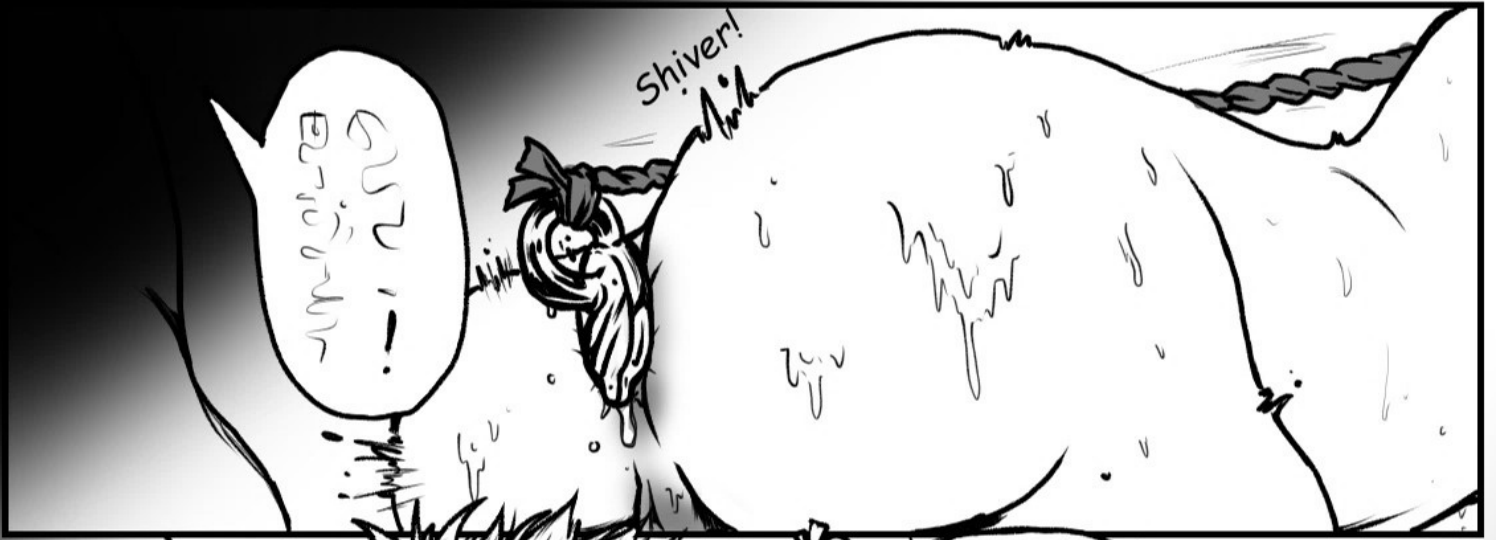

The tribute to be was soaked in the liquid and her inside was filled completely full with it.

Afterward, her hair was braided and tied for the ceremony, while any body hairs from the neck down were completely removed.

And the holy water was sealed in.

With her belly still filled with the chemical which caused her mind to be in disarray, Mina was then taken to the throne room.

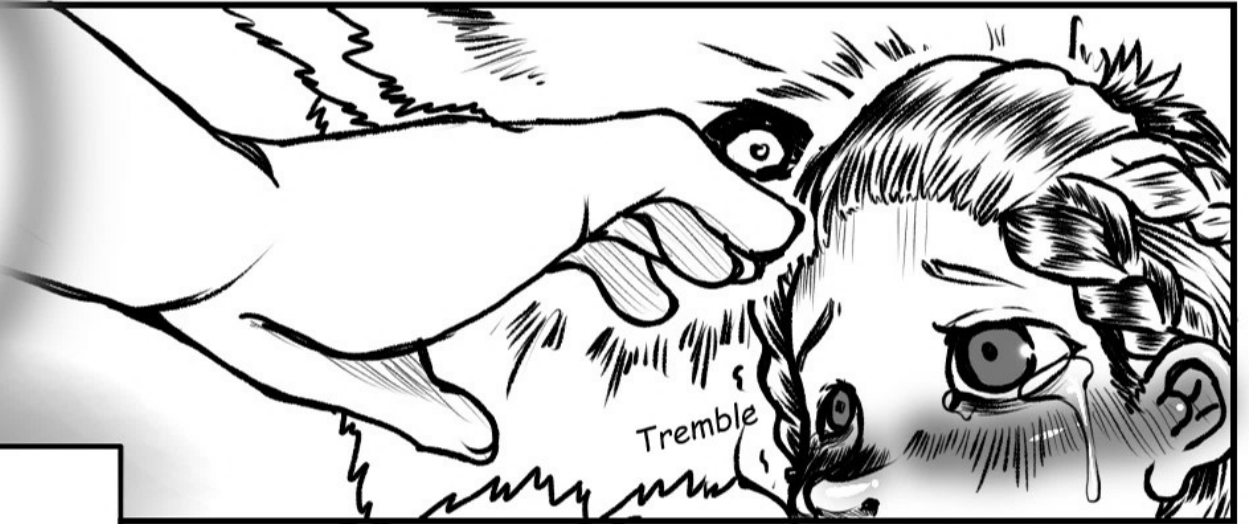

Where she met the king for the first time and his royal canine, the sacred descendant of the gods.

The king

satisfaction in

The same went for the royal canine.
The wait was over for them.

Their

Then, the "union"
began with the symbol of the canine gods.

A massive sacred brass

given to the tribute.

The seal for the holy water was removed from Mina's orifice.

NO!!

While her birth canal was to be filled with the god's phallus.

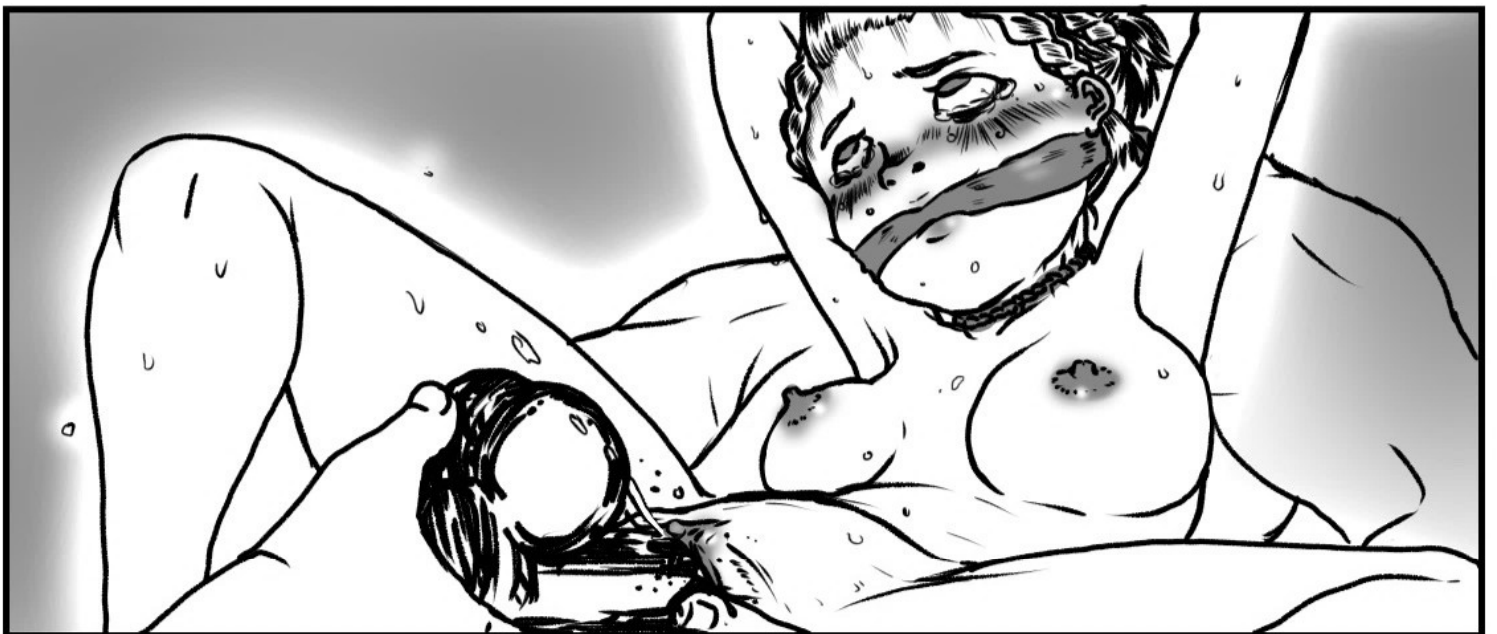

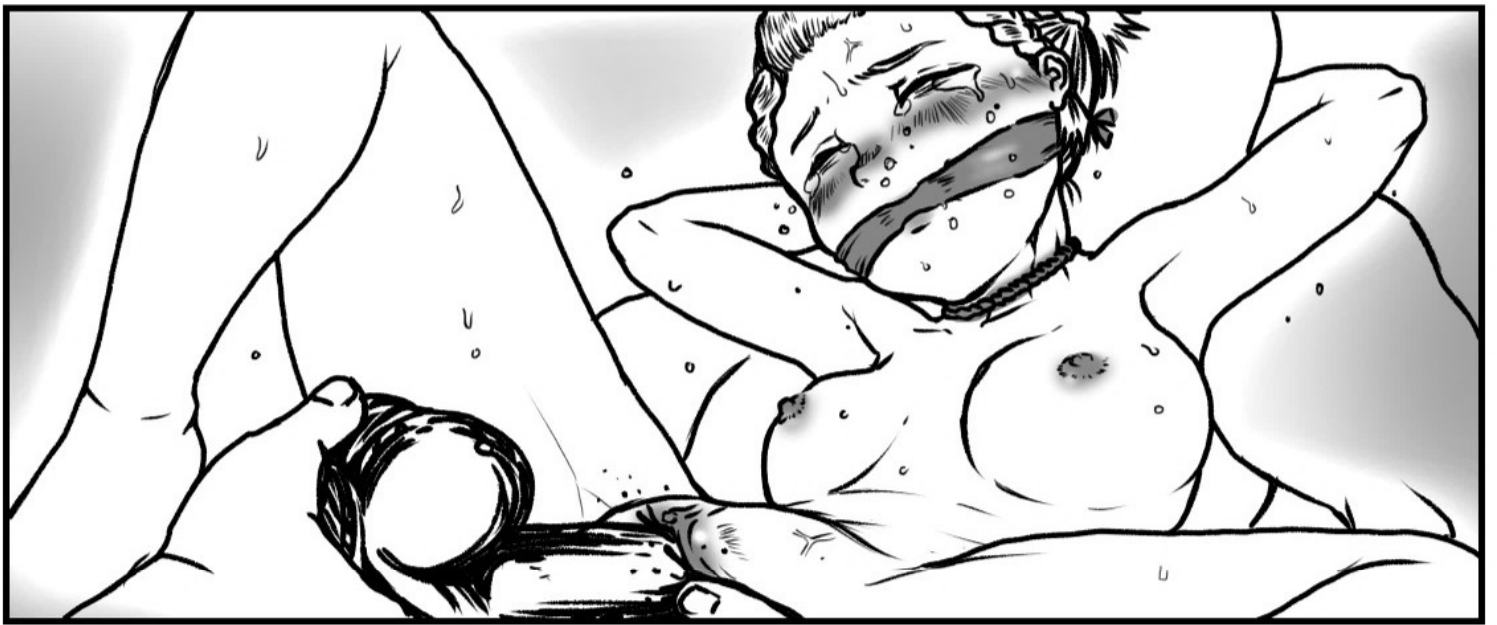

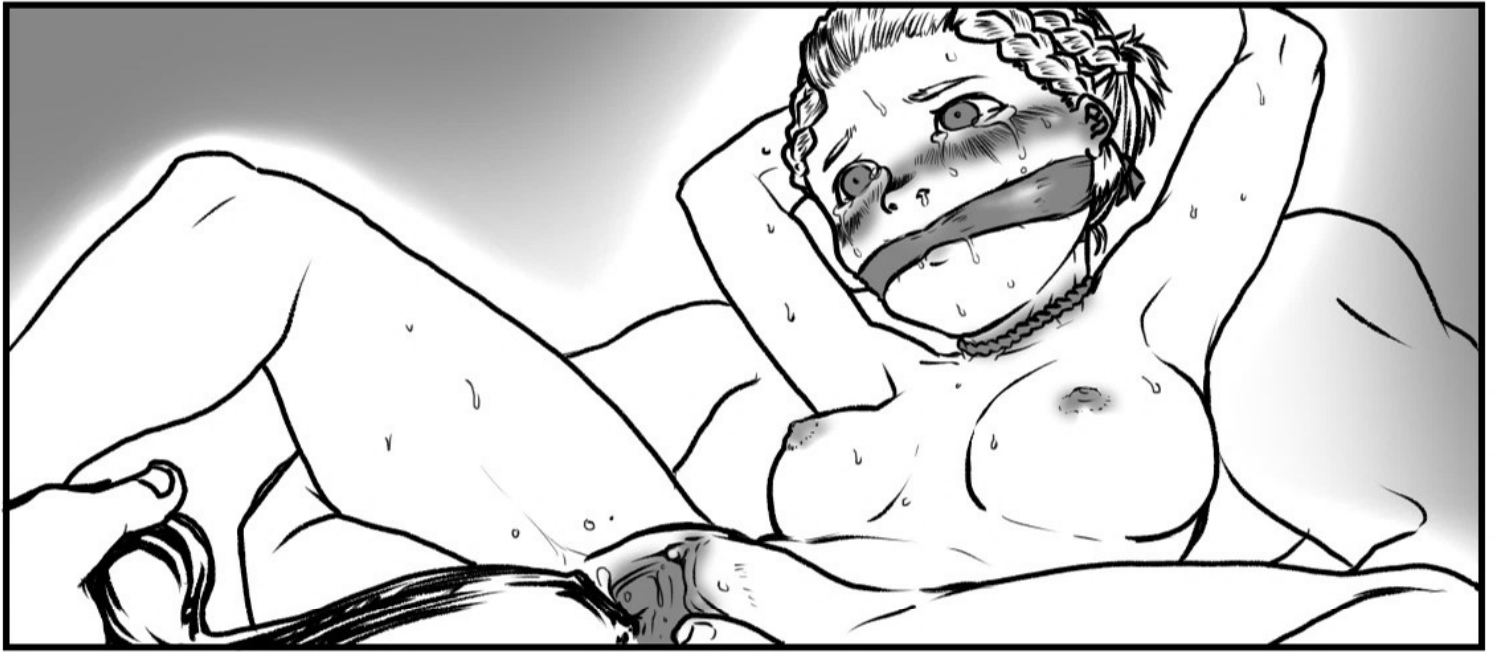

PLLSS!!

It's going to kill me!!

DN!

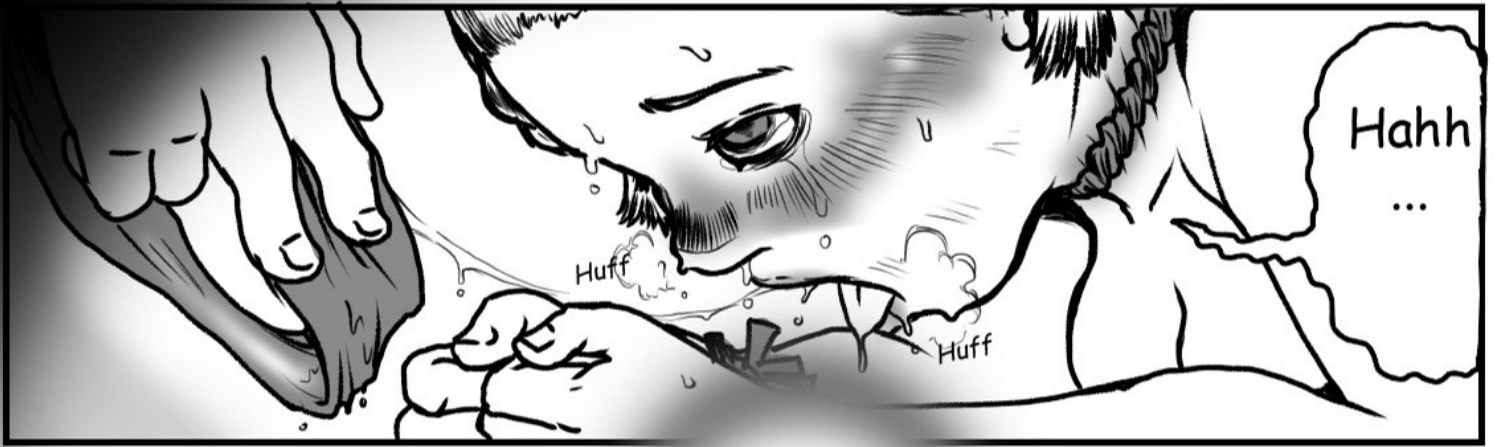

PLS!

The young researcher was a virgin.

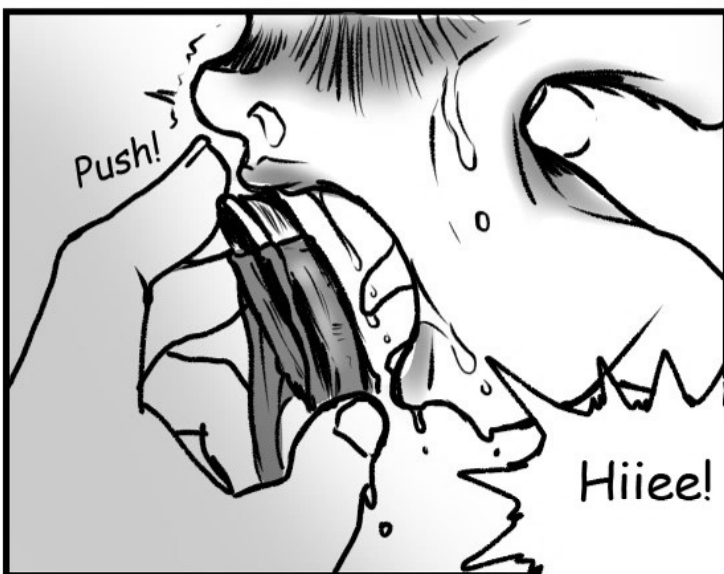

The totem was buried up to her womb. This signified the first sacrifice which will bring a long lasting fortune to the tribe.

It's so painful, but I feel something strange...

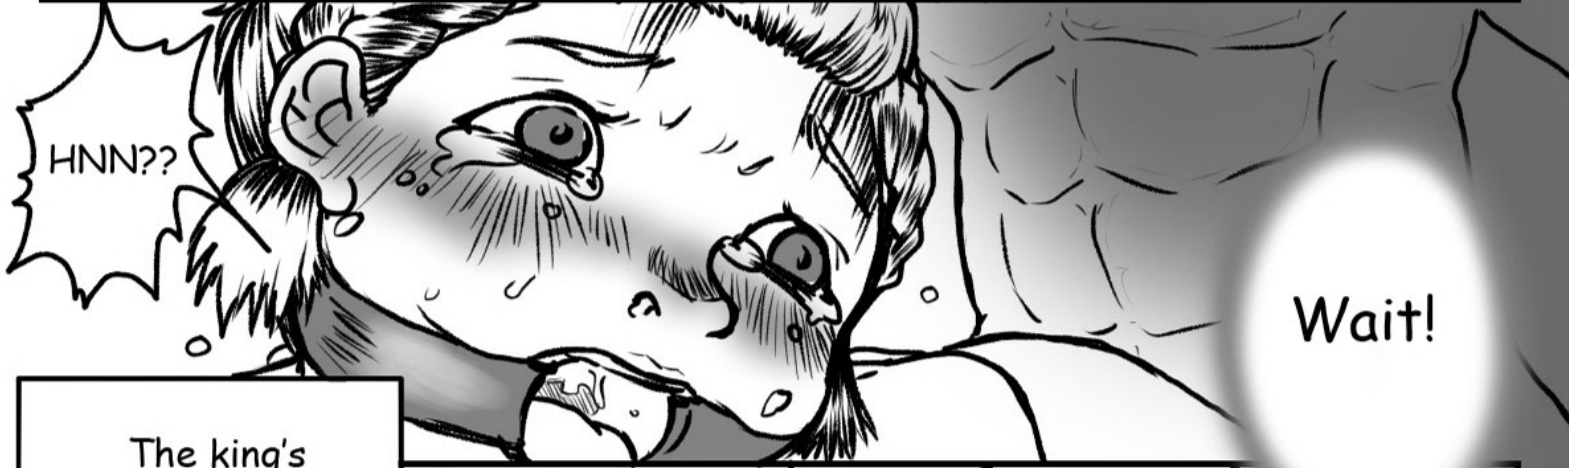

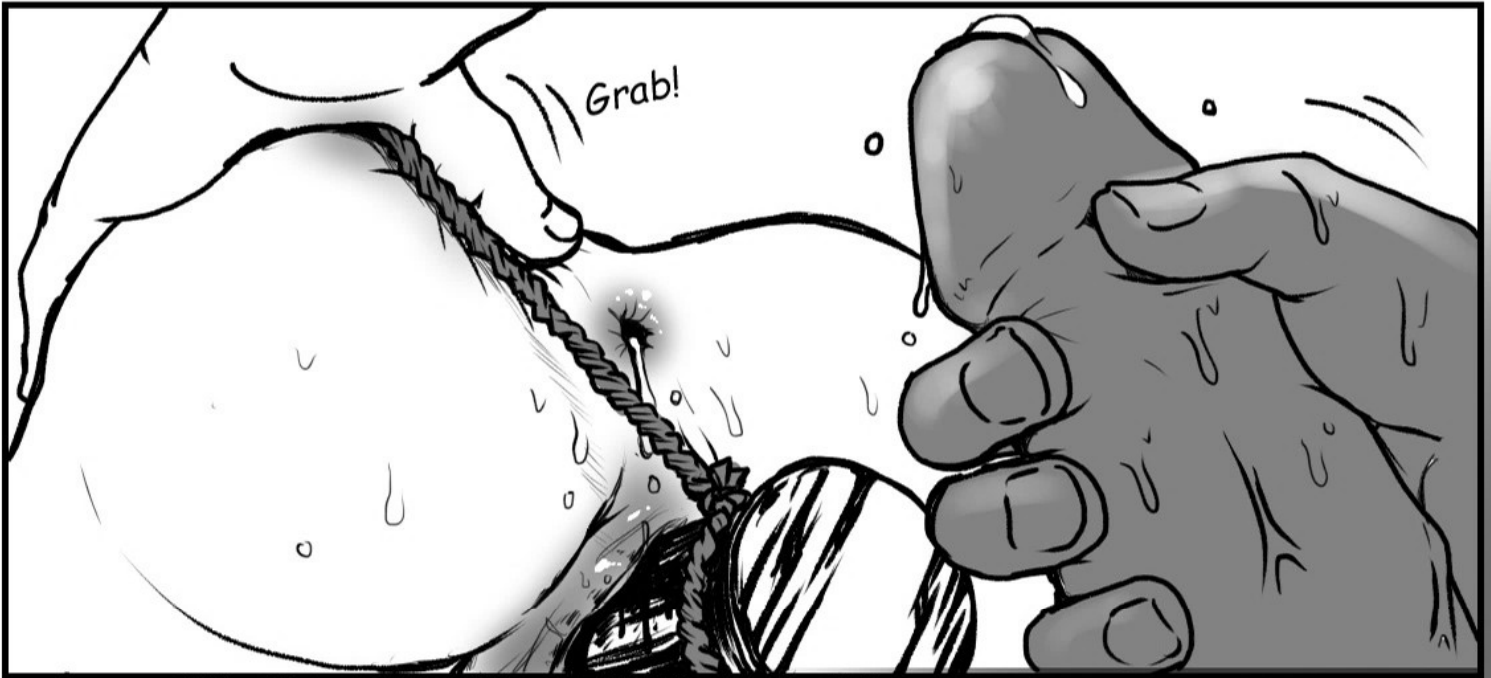

Next, the gag was removed and replaced with the iconic leather ring of the drooling tributes.

With the god's phallus still tied inside her,
it's time for the king to participate in the Union.

What

The king's participation signified the fair and peaceful reign over the tribe.

It's too much

I can't think straight

Uuh

The last part of the union of the gods, men and
sacred animals,
was the joining
of the royal canine, the descendant of the gods.

The
dog...

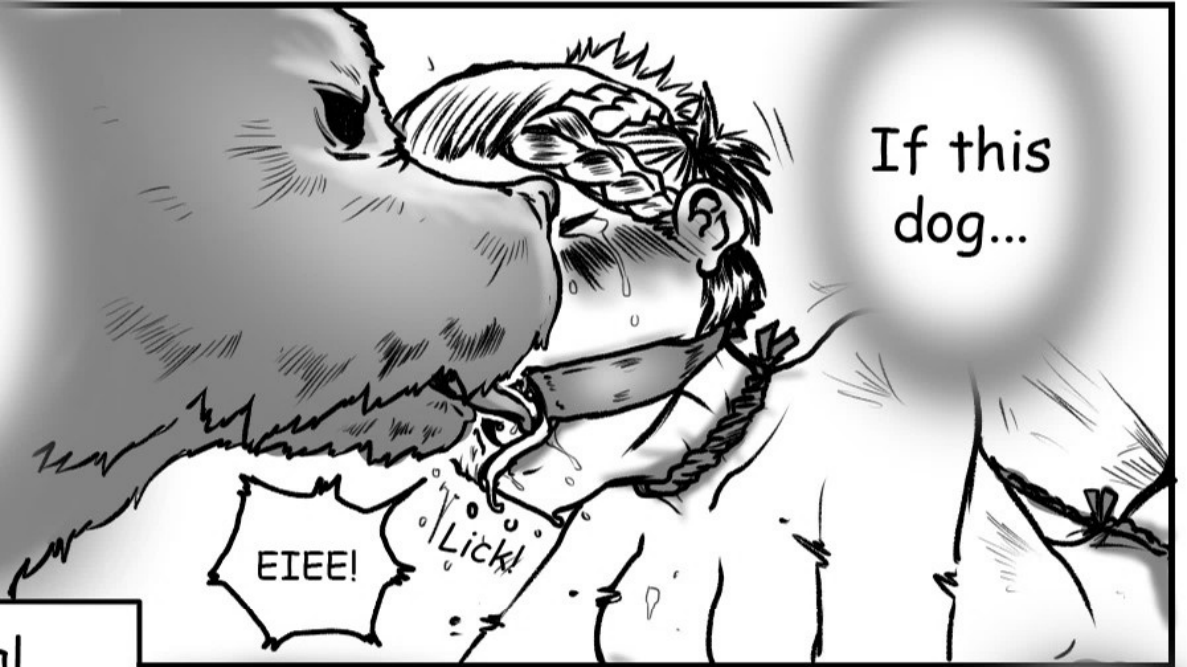

Hh!

This can't be happening

If this dog...

The royal canine's
participation signified the connection of the tribe to nature and the duty to protect it.

I wouldn't
...

...be able to go back!

I would no longer be a human!

The tribute to be was forever marked by the 3 pillars in the union in all her drooling
orifices.

The seeds of man
and sacred beast
combined, witnessed by the gods, inside the newly reborn drooling tribute.

It hurts
so much...

But it feels good...

Everything
hurts.
Everywhere.

*Cocks

Please...
Please
make it stop!

*I

now?

Next, was the

of leathers, furs,

The tribute's sensitive parts were pierced and brass rings were put through them. No anesthetics were used and the drug in her system intensified the pain.

A brass cylinder then was insert into the tribute's vagina. Kept in place by the brass piercings. This created the second "drooling" of the drooling tribute.

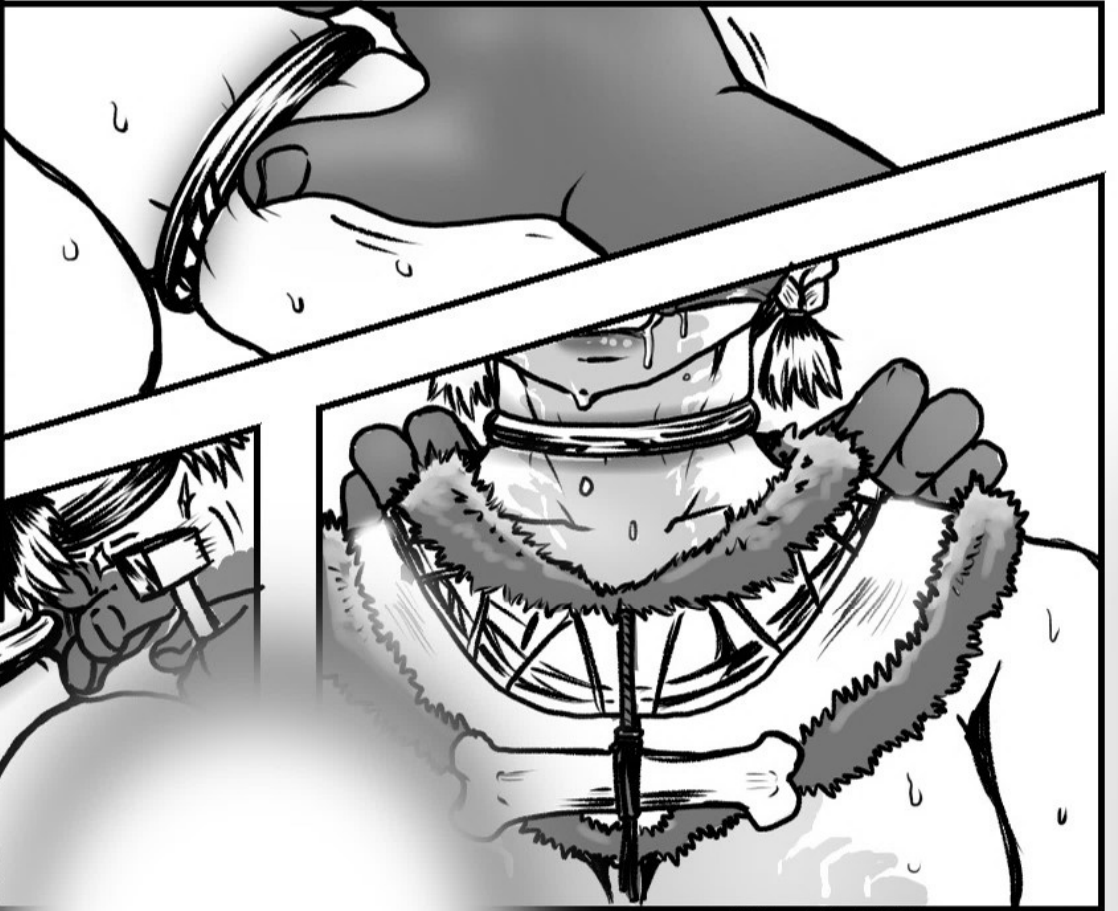

It was then tied to the brass anal plug connected to her new white furry dog tail.

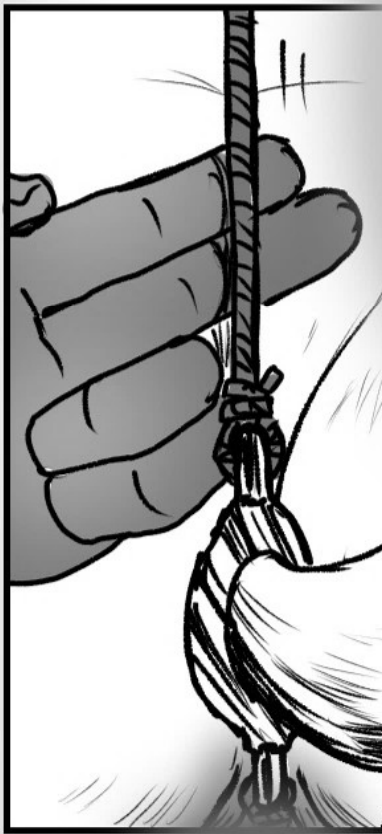

Why is this happening to me??

A pink herbal ointment was then drawn on from her face and down her torso. Another red ointment on her lower abdomen and her rear in the tribe's symbol. The chemical permanently altered her skin pigments where it touched, and it burned terribly.

More brass rings on her neck, upper arms and thighs reduced blood flow, mainly to her limbs. This coupled with the drug induced vertigo, rendered her unable to walk upright.

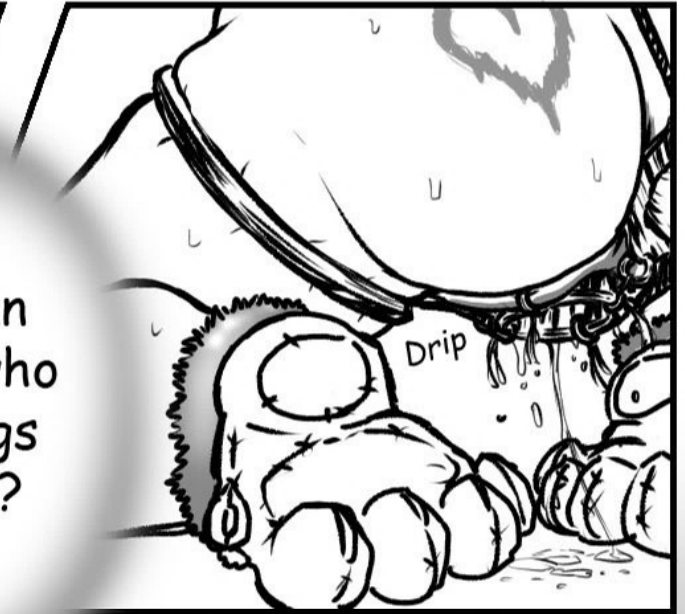

The pains...
They are endless!

How can

With the fabled

is completed.

Her fate was

The royal white bitch will spend the rest of her life at the feet of her masters. Men and canines alike. Fulfilling all their twisted desires.

These people are monsters!

I want more...

There has to be a way to escape!

The king and his sacred canine led their new bitch through the village in celebration of him joining monkhood.

I just have to wait for a chance.

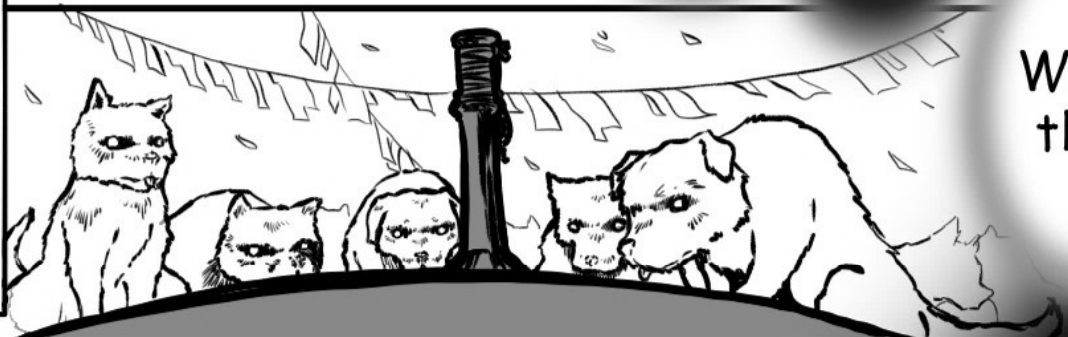

They are all watching ...

Have to get out of here!

They want to fuck me...

Pant

The path led to the village's center where the royal tribute's next task awaited.

What's that?

What are they doing?

Where the king shared the royal white bitch to other sacred canines in the tribe. Showing respect to the holy animals and symbolized his generous reign to come.

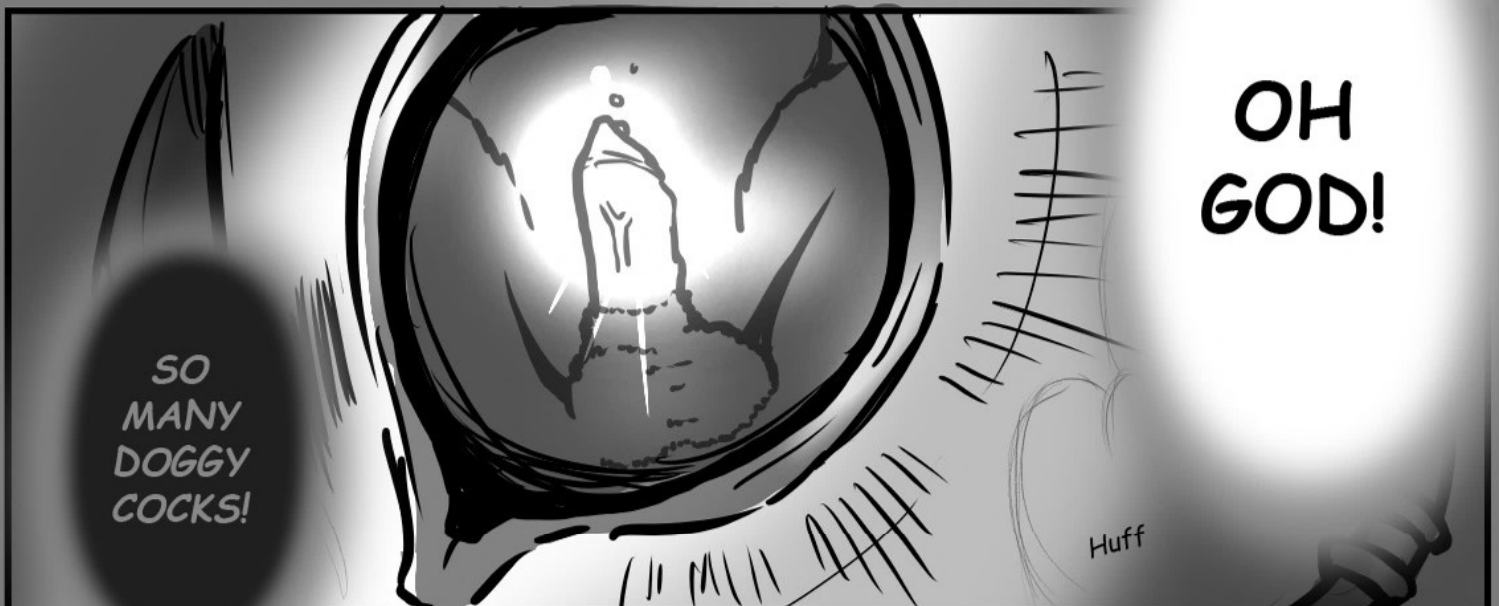

Cocks!
